SIR,

Arrears of Parr Guard pay due by the Sri Raghav Narasimha Mutt at Nanjangud.

Rolls Letter for reference in Proceedings. (Issue Memo with Secy's Note for Govt.)

Referring to correspondence ending with your letter C.S. 967 Pol.170-32-14 dated 20/23rd May 1933 to the Inspector-General of Police, I have the honor to state that the Chief Commissioner of Police indicates that a sum of R 4820-15-11 is due by the Sri Raghavendra Swami Mutt at Nanjangud and that steps may be made to recover the same. The Agent of the Mutt who was addressed in the matter has submitted the accompanying petition pleading inability to pay the amount in one sum for reasons explained and praying that a moiety of the arrears may be remitted in which case the other moiety would be paid before the end of June next or to allow four years' time to repay the entire amount, the first instalment being payable in June 1934. As the Mutt's request for the remission of any portion of the dues was already negatived in the Financial Secretary's letter C.S. 2477 Pol.170-32-3 dated 25-8-1933, and as the Mutt does not seem to be in a position to pay the demand immediately, I request that the proposal now made by the Agent may be accepted and the entire arrears of peshkash, the interest accruing may be ordered to be remitted from the grant payable to the Mutt from the Nanjangud Taluk Local Fund Settlement commencing from 1935-36.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
